Visit to Migrants

Alida Menezes

18th December 2022, was the most wonderful day of my life, this day I understood who are ‘Migrants’. When our catechist teacher informed us, that we will be visiting the migrant, I was happy that I will teach them a lot, but looking at them I myself learned a lot, the value of what my parents gave me. We enjoyed being with them, played games, distributed Hampers, had fun with them etc... I take this opportunity to thank Fr. Rosario Oliverira, our Parish Priest and Fr. Seby Vaz, our Asst. Parish Priest and our Teachers for making us understand the meaning of ‘Less Privileged’ and what is ‘Privileged’. I thank God for making me Privileged and for my Parents.

Nuncio's Visit to Sé' Cathedral

Prepared by Mrs. Hema Menezes

PPC Secretary, Sé Cathedral, Old Goa

His Excellency, Most Rev. Leopoldo Girelli, the Apostolic Nuncio to India and Nepal, during his pastoral visit to the Archdiocese of Goa and Daman, had a brief but fruitful visit to the Sé Cathedral, Old Goa, on 04th December 2022. Enthusiastic Parishioners, PPC members, Confraria members, Canons of the Cathedral Chapter and others were lined up to welcome His Excellency. The Nuncio arrived at the Cathedral at 6.30 pm. He was accompanied by His Eminence Philip Neri Cardinal Ferrao and was given a regal floral welcome by the Parish Priest Rev Can Rosario Oliveira and the President of the Cathedral chapter Rev Can Alfred Vas. His red carpet welcome was accompanied by the rich tone of the Cathedral Golden Bell housed by the Cathedral tower which announced to the congregation and the surrounding islands the arrival of His Excellency and melodious hymn 'Tu es sacerdos' by our Parish choir led by Fr. Seby Vaz.

Inside the Cathedral, His Excellency toured the eight Chapels and the six altars along its aisles besides the main altar dedicated to Saint Catherine of Alexandria. The Parish Priest gave a brief description of the Cathedral to His Excellency. Can. Alfredo Vaz explained about the Cross of Miracles.

His Excellency then visited the grave of Late Archbishop Emeritus Raul Nicolau Goncalves who was the first Goan Catholic to be Archbishop of Goa and Patriarch of the East Indies and paid his floral tribute. He also paid tribute to remains of the Cuncolim martyrs at St Anne's Altar and the memorable Grave stone of Andrius Rudamina S.J. (1596-1632), the first Lithuanian who landed in India on 22nd of august 1625.

After the choir's "Salve Reinga", His Excellency addressed to those gathered and esteemed the beauty and grandeur of the Magnificent Cathedral and appreciated the significance of the Cathedral being dedicated to a lady saint-St Catherine of Alexandria when many churches in Goa are dedicated to male saints.

Before the Blessing, His Excellency joined the parishioners in prayer praying "Our Lord's prayer", "Hail Mary" invocation to Our Lady of Three Necessities and" Glory be "honouring the Most Blessed Trinity. Visit to the Cathedral ended with His Excellency blessing the parishioners queuing in the Aisle and clicking pictures with different groups.

Holy infant day in our parish

28th December was a day dedicated to the Holy Infants, at 8:00am Fr. Seby Vaz and Fr. Rosario Oliveira celebrated the Eucharist and offered the mass on behalf of all the children of our parish, Fr. Seby gave a beautiful homily with regards to the visit to the orphanage in Colva, which was visited on the 27th of December along with the friends of Jesus, the youth, the altar servers and the catechists. The priests prayed for all our children and blessed them. After mass sweets and cake were distributed to the children.

Nativity of Our Lord Celebration at Se Cathedral

The Nativity of Our Lord was celebrated with solemn devotion at Se Cathedral church, Old Goa on 25th December, 2022. The midnight Eucharistic celebration was presided over by His Excellency, Most Reverend Cardinal Felipe Neri Ferrao. The Holy mass was preceded by a meaningful act by the parishioners depicting the relevance of Christmas to our times. The act showed Jesus, the Messiah bringing healing to the sick, comfort to the lonely and compassion to sinners. The birth of Baby Jesus gave hope and love to mankind and we are called to allow Jesus to be born in our hearts so as to give the same hope and love to those in need. This was the message of Christmas that was ably depicted in the act. The melodious rendering of Christmas carols by the parish choir added to the Christmas fervour.

The Eucharistic service began at 12:00 am. Rev. Cardinal placed the baby Jesus in the Manger and the congregation joined him in adoring the child Jesus.

In his homily, Cardinal Ferrao said that the birth of Jesus dispelled darkness and Jesus reached out to the most vulnerable people. He exhorted the faithful to follow in his footsteps, to reach out to needy and to be agents of unity in our communities. It is only then that Jesus will find a place in our hearts, he said.

After the service, the faithful exchanged festal greetings and savoured the hot coffee along with cake prepared and served jointly by Our Lady of Piety and St John Facundo wards.

The Christmas tableau on the message of Christmas prepared by all the 12 (twelve) wards of the parish was inaugurated by the Cardinal Bishop Felipe Neri Ferrao after the Eucharistic service.

Love And Marriage (IV)

Fr. Rosario Oliveira

In the previous issue of the ‘ULO’ we had discussed about the need to obtain ‘sufficient knowledge’ about ‘self’ about ‘marriage’ and about the ‘spouse-to-be’.

Although acquiring knowledge about self, marriage and spouse-to-be is a lifelong process, those intending to get married must ensure of obtaining at least sufficient knowledge on the matter before making a final decision in order to make a lifelong commitment in marriage. At the time of nuptials, the couple give their consent. The object of the consent is marriage. Each of the spouses must know what marriage is. God, the Creator, has established a natural marriage. In the Bible and in the book of Genesis, we find the narrative of the institution of natural marriage. All human beings, intending to marry, must obtain sufficient knowledge about the ‘natural marriage’ as intended by God. Since Christ has raised the natural marriage to the dignity of Sacrament, the Christians, in addition to the natural marriage, need to know the doctrine on Christian marriage. The process of obtaining knowledge about natural and Christian marriage and the obligations and rights contained therein, must not be confined only to the marriage preparation course but it should begin long before even the person decides to get married. There is remote, proximate and immediate process in doing so.

Once a person has obtained sufficient knowledge about marriage, he/she then need to make a sincere assessment about one's self in order to ascertain whether or not he/she has the required qualities and aptitude to contract such a marriage; Whether or not he/she is capable of assuming and fulfilling the obligations of marriage; whether or not he/she has the capacity to make necessary sacrifices, adjustments, commitments, and total giving of oneself to the other in order to establish marriage. If, after the appraisal, he/she comes to the conclusion that he/she has the 'capacity' to marry, then he/she must choose the right partner.

In order to choose the right partner, one must gain sufficient knowledge about him/her through objective analyses. In doing so, the person must not go by emotions but with a rational deliberation and arrive at a practical judgement. This is very important because one is going to commit one's life to the other person in marriage which, once donated, cannot be received back. Hence a thorough investigation of the other must be done not so much by the family but by the person concerned. Apart from the family background and faith, it is important to see if the other person is well-suited in educational qualifications, steady at job, stable behavioural traits, value system, capacity for a selfless love, capacity to assume marital responsibility, etc. A person who is physically or mentally or spiritually weak may not be able to fulfil the basic obligations of marriage; a person who is not sincere, non-committal, and self-centred may not be able to give him/herself totally to the other spouse in marriage. A person who is a regular abuser of substances such as alcohol/drugs, a person who is over possessive, or who focusses only on the quality such as beauty rather than the person of the other spouse or seeks physical relationship prior to marriage even against the will of the other, may not be able to establish a partner of life and love with the spouse and a person who appears to be getting involved with other beautiful/handsome person rather than focusing on his/her fiancée/fiancé, may not be able to fulfil the vow of faithfulness.

The absolute knowledge is not contemplated but at least a sufficient knowledge about marriage, self and the spouse-to-be is must in order for the young people to make an evaluative, mature and discreet judgment to contract marriage.

Holy family Feast and Celebration

This Year we celebrated our parish Family Day on 30th December on the Feast of the Holy Family.

The Eucharistic Celebration was in the morning at 7.00 am and the Parishioners get together was held in the evening, but preparation for this day had started days before by some of the groups namely the decor, the entertainment and the food committee.

The members of each committee selflessly made time to coordinate and organize the celebration which was a huge success.

To start with for entertainment there was a dance put up by the nuns they were all so beautifully dressed in white and performed a prayer dance. There was a one-man band by Luis who entertained the parishioners throughout the evening. The parishioners were all dancing together as one big extended family.

It brought a smile to many faces to see our Parish Priest, Fr. Rosario Oliveira too grooving to the music. The one's who were not dancing were enjoying the music while their feet kept tapping the floor to the music.

There was a beautiful dance put up by kids on the Christmas Carol Feliz Navidad. Another group of boys put up a Mime, we could see the kids laughing their hearts out and enjoying it.

The comper of the event Shane kept the parishioners engaged in some interesting spot prizes.

The food committee group were shouldering the biggest responsibility of catering food for the day for which the number kept increasing until the day before. They were on their toes from morning 10.00 am, some parishioners also volunteered in helping them by chopping and cutting vegetables for preparing the food. Through their hard work and dedication, they served delicious snacks and tasty food which was appreciated by all.

It was a beautifully organized celebration which was enjoyed by all parishioners as they got a chance to catch up with other fellow parishioners. This was made possible with the blessings of our Priests and hard work, patience and persistence of the organizing groups which definitely deserved a pat on their backs.

New Year Eve

As the year 2022 came to an end, parishioners rushed to spend the last hour of the year in the church to Praise and Thank the Lord for all the good times and blessings received throughout the year.

The Holy Hour was very well conducted by the Divine Mercy group of our Parish with the Blessed Sacrament exposed for the Faithful Adoration. It was then followed by the midnight Eucharistic celebration of the Solemnity of Mary, The Mother of God which was presided over by Our Parish Priest, Rev. Can. Fr. Rosario Oliveira along with Rev. Can. Fr Valerian Vaz. Our Parish Choir under the leadership of our Assistant Parish Priest, Fr. Seby Vaz lead the faithful with their blissful singing.

The Theme selected by the Liturgical Committee for the Eucharistic Celebration was “Maria, Juze ani Ballok Ekcharachem Jivit Sohobhageliponnan jieunk ulo korta” keeping in mind the theme for the Liturgical year. The Liturgy was also very well executed thereby enabling the gathered faithful to participation in the Eucharist with deeper faith.

During the mass intention, Fr Rosario reminded us to pray for the soul of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI who passed away earlier in the day and at the end of the celebration Fr. Rosario urged us to wish one another a Happy Feast along with the New year wishes for 2023.

As the service ended parishioners spent some quality time wishing one another sipping on a cup of coffee and biting a piece of cake jointly prepared and served by St. Lazarus and St. Joseph Vaz – ref. Eddie Crasta?? ward in the garden in front of the Christmas tableau.

First walk in Crib - “I AM” by the Sé Catedral parishners

By Delina Fernandes

For the First time, the Sé Catedral Parish of Old-Goa Introduces a walk in crib with a biblical theme - “I Am”. A concept curated jointly by our Parish Priest, Fr. Rosario Oliveira along with the Assistant Parish Priest, Fr. Seby Vaz and the creativity at display by the talented lay faithful (Parishioners). The Crib was inaugurated on the 25th December, 2022 by his eminence, Filipe Neri Cardinal Ferrão.

The walk in Crib embodies a unique representation in twelve (12) creative parts, which begins with “The Great I AM” (Jn 8:58) where Jesus Christ is “The Great I AM”, Jesus declares Himself as the very God of all Creation from the very beginning, He is the same Lord who blessed Abraham, and the He is the Holy One who inhabits all eternity. Similarly, during Our Lord Jesus Christ’s ministry here on earth, on several occasions he used the great formula describing himself “I am the bread of life”, (Jn 6:48). He alone is able to satisfy the greatest spiritual hunger in our life. Have you come to Him and ate His bread? Then, Jesus said, “I am the Light of the world” (Jn 8:12). He healed a blind man groping in darkness and then opened his spiritual eyes so he could see the great I AM and worship Him. Are you wandering around in a spiritual darkness following one blind religious guide after another?

Jesus said, “I am the Good Shepherd” (Jn 10:11). Every individual is like a wandering, stray lost lamb caught in the briars of sin. There are a lot of false shepherds in numerous forms herding up stray sheep to take to slaughter. Jesus, is the only Good Shepherd.

Jesus said that He is the only door into God’s presence. He said, “I am the Door” (Jn 10:9). All other doors lead down the wrong path and to eternal destruction. Jesus is the only door to salvation.

Jesus conquered death. Not only did He say, “I am the resurrection and life” (Jn 11:25), but He rose from the dead to prove it. In fact, this is the great evidence that Jesus Christ is the great “I AM who I AM”. He died, was buried, and three days later rose from the dead. Because He is alive, he renews our hope, our life altogether so that we can have eternal Life.

Furthermore, He sustains our spiritual life because He is the True Vine (Jn 15:1), the only way, and the giver of life (Jn 14:6) and truth (Jn 14:6).

In every one of these contexts the “I am” keeps reinforcing the divine nature of Jesus. Where Jesus declares Himself the only path to heaven, the only true measure of righteousness, and the source of both physical and spiritual life.

Every part is interconnected with the main biblical theme in different forms. Ultimately, leading up to Crib’s final Nativity scene with a message that has to be experienced by everyone who visits on an individual and community level. The parishioners have depicted the visual elements beautifully. The walk in Crib ends with the Diocesan theme “FOLLOW ME”, (Jn 21:19), the commandments of love (Jn 13:30) and depicting a scene where “WE ALL ARE ONE” (Jn 17:21) through God, irrespective of the cast, creed colour, race and ethnicity.

This year, the Walk in Crib is put up in a sustainable manner in efforts to preserve the environment. Therefore, the Parishioners have made good use of biodegradables such as Wood, paper, cardboard, cloth, other reusable and Recycled materials. No non-biodegradable materials were used in the making.

The walk in crib is located at the Sé Cathedral church ground and will be kept open for visitors till the 6th of January 2023 from 9am to 8 pm.
